Yes, I realize the game genre you've been filled with Jew-Savage-PC-Dung-Niggers that can't possibly understand my way of thinking, and I've accepted that and fully embrace the fact that I'll never be one of Those, but there have been odd moments in my life where I've seen a game and I thought, that's kinda me, I can totally play that game.

After multivariable linear regression, adjustment for body mass index, age and waist circumference, lower CVNN (beta = 0.67, $p = 0.034$) remained independently associated with PCOS.
